

Once you have formed an Organic Learning Community (OLC), please click on "Edit Document/ Edit in Browser" button, select an open box below, and enter the names of your OLC members. OLC #1 has been created as an example.

Want to give your group a name? Group names are optional and can be added at any time.

Looking for a group? Contact members of an existing group or start an OLC by putting your name in an empty box! Perhaps you can add some comments about your availability, etc.

Remember, each OLC group ideally has 3-4 people in it. OLC participants will receive +2 points added to their final exam grade if they:

1. Meet with OLC for at least one hour each week; AND
2. Make an entry in their Blackboard journal after each meeting (minimum of 7 entries required to receive full credit); AND
3. Write a final reflection on their OLC experience at the end of the quarter.
